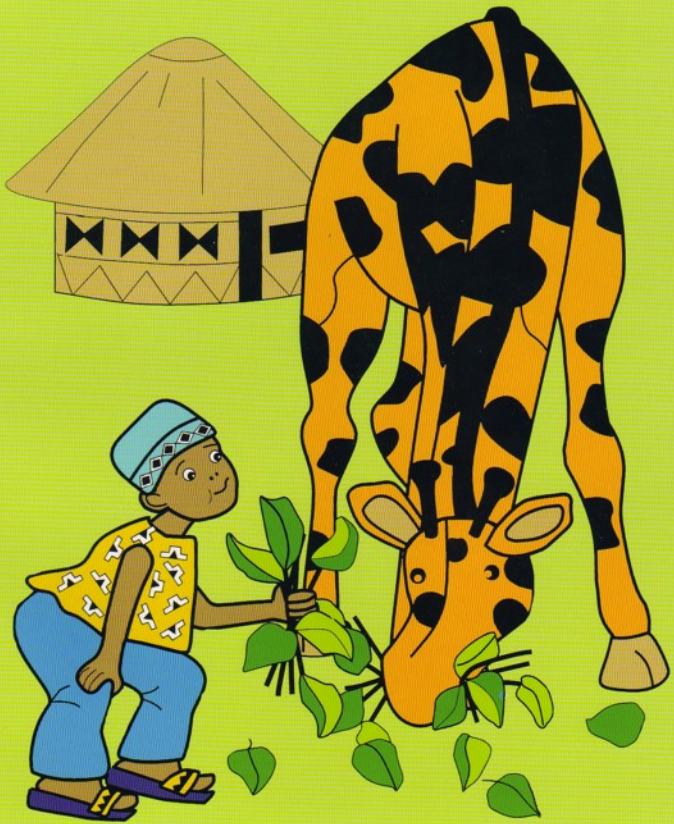
VISIT…

Dover Coloring Book

Animal Friends
from Around the World

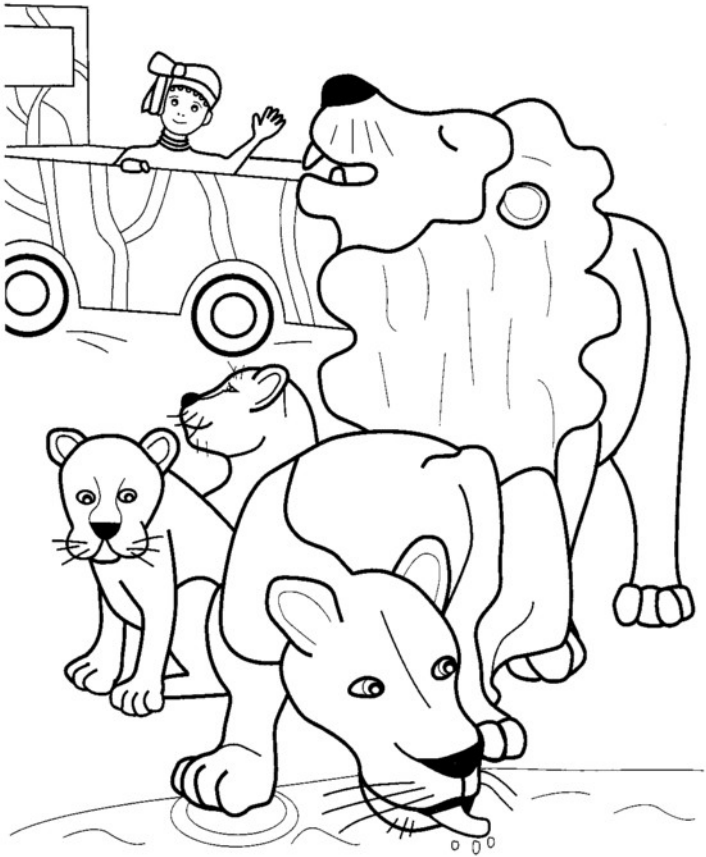


1. In Egypt people ride camels in the desert.

2. The chimpanzees of Africa love to eat bananas.

3. Gorillas live deep in the forests of central Africa.

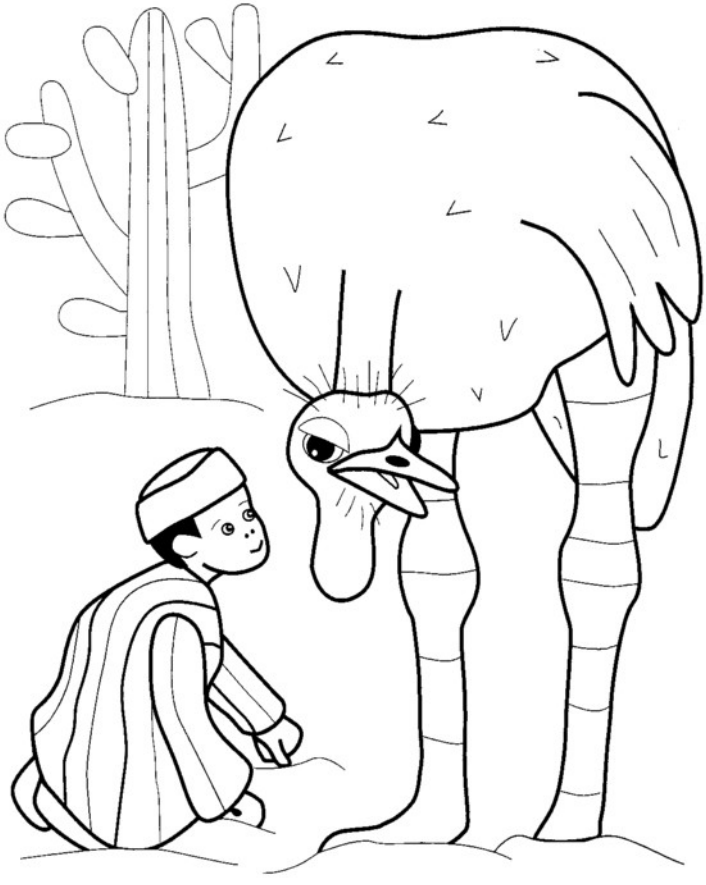
4. The African hippopotamus keeps cool in the river.



5. African lions live in families called "prides."

6. Leaves are a favorite food of the African giraffe.

7. The zebras of Africa look like horses with stripes.

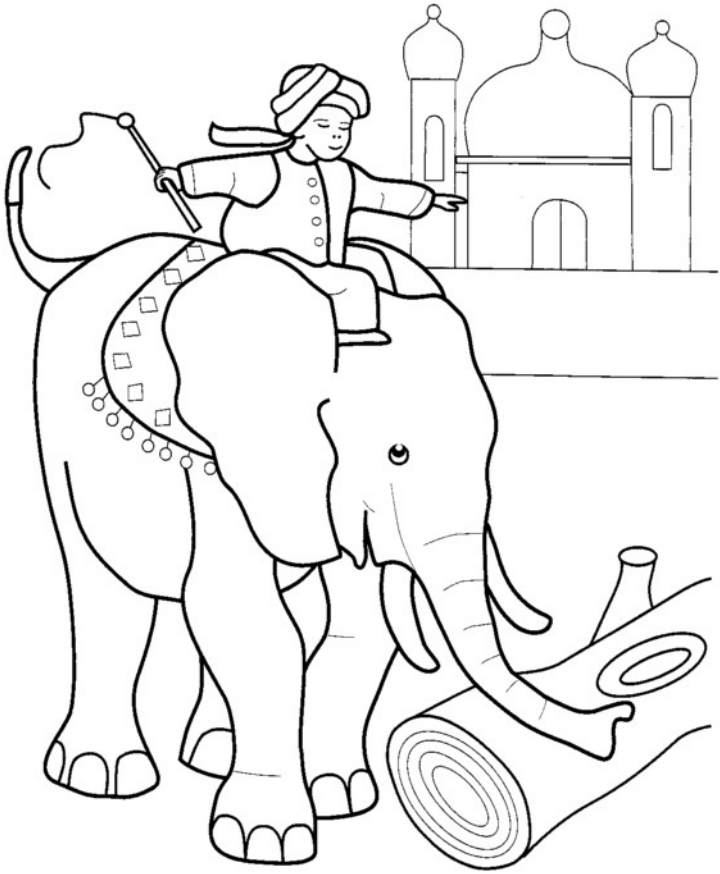


8. The African ostrich is the largest living bird.

9. Natives of Malaysia call the orangutan, "person of the forest."

10. Fierce tigers live in the forests of India.

11. The male peacock of Sri Lanka has a large, colorful tail.



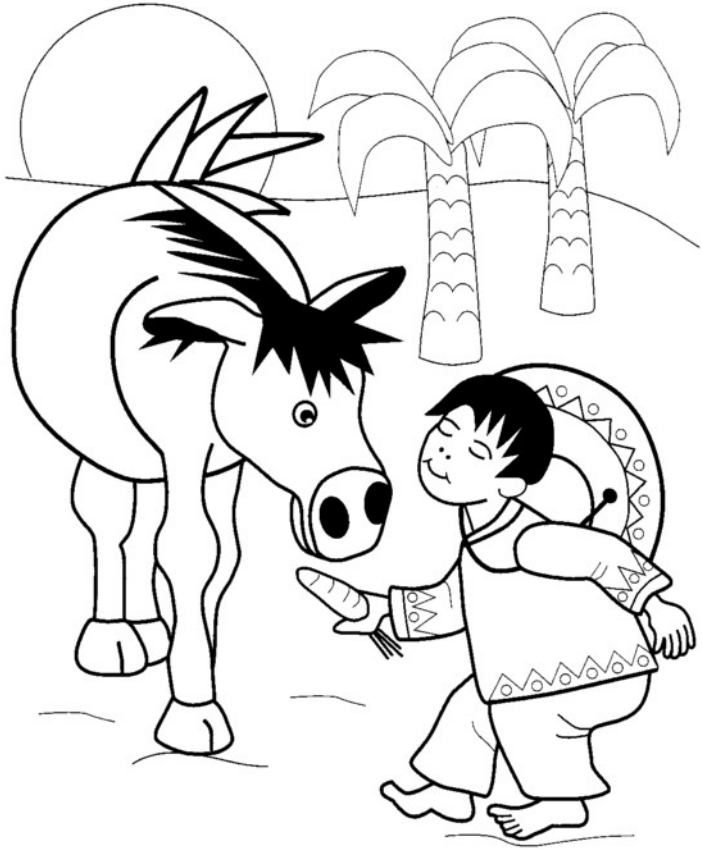
12. In India, elephants are trained to work.

13. The Akita is a large guard dog of Japan.

14. The koala of Australia eats only eucalyptus leaves.

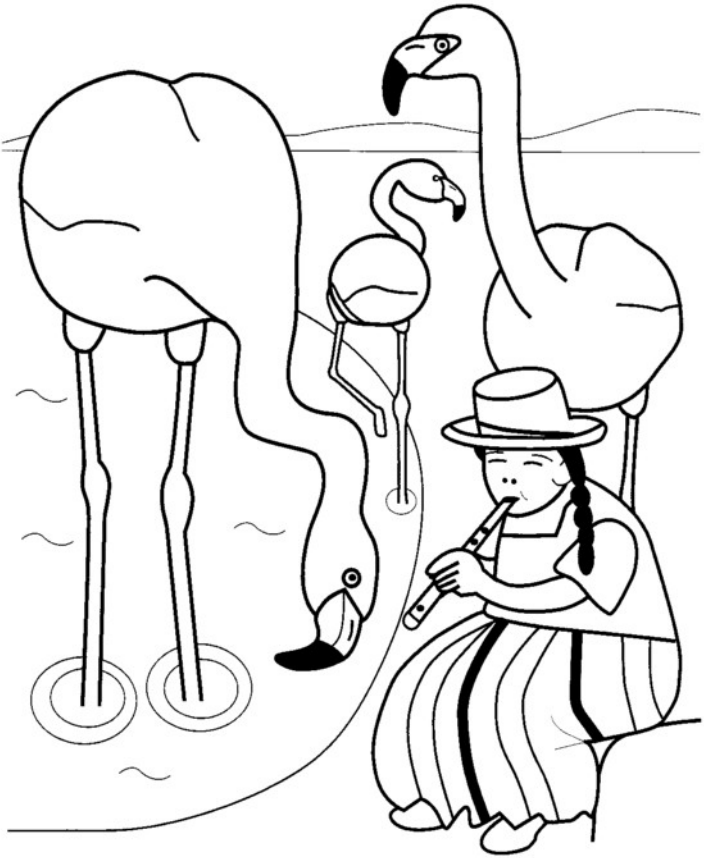
15. Australian kangaroo babies live in the mother's pouch.

16. Pandas live in China and eat bamboo.



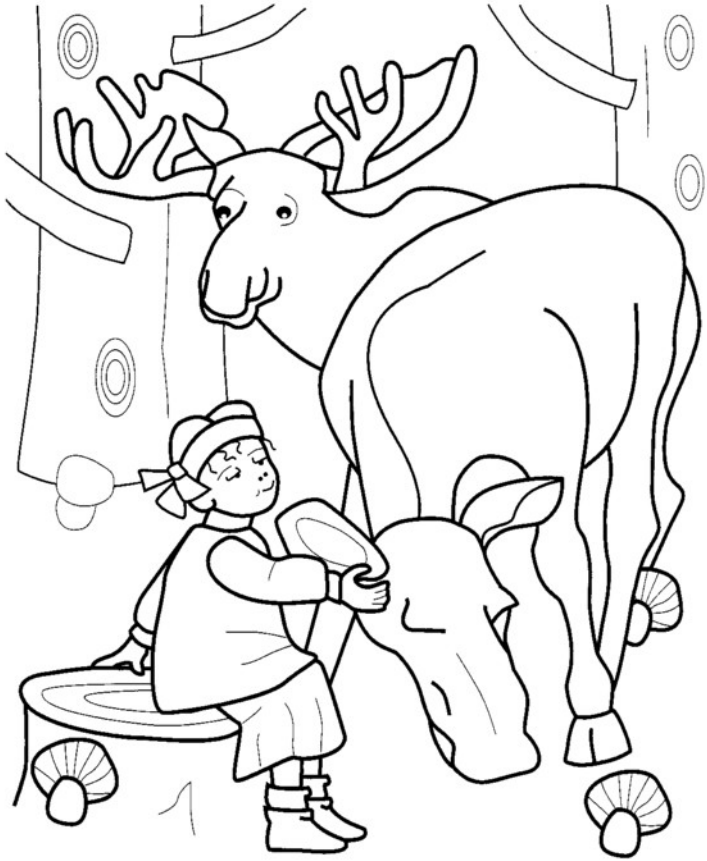
17. In Mexico, a donkey is called a "burro."

18. The Amazon parrot of Brazil uses its strong beak to crack seeds and nuts.

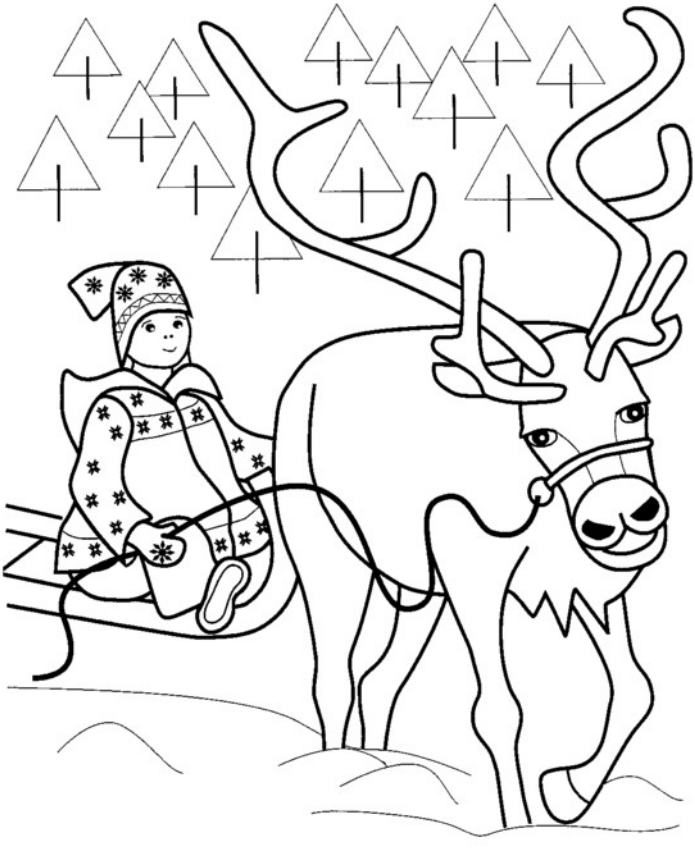


19. The flamingo of Peru has long legs for wading.

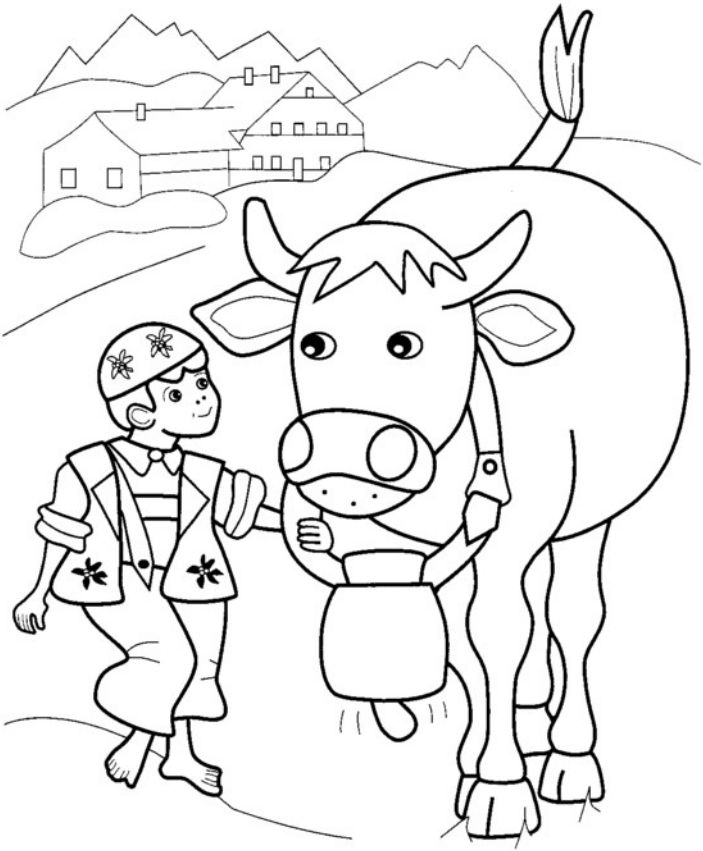
20. Spider monkeys of South America swing through the trees.



21. The moose of Canada is the largest member of the deer family.

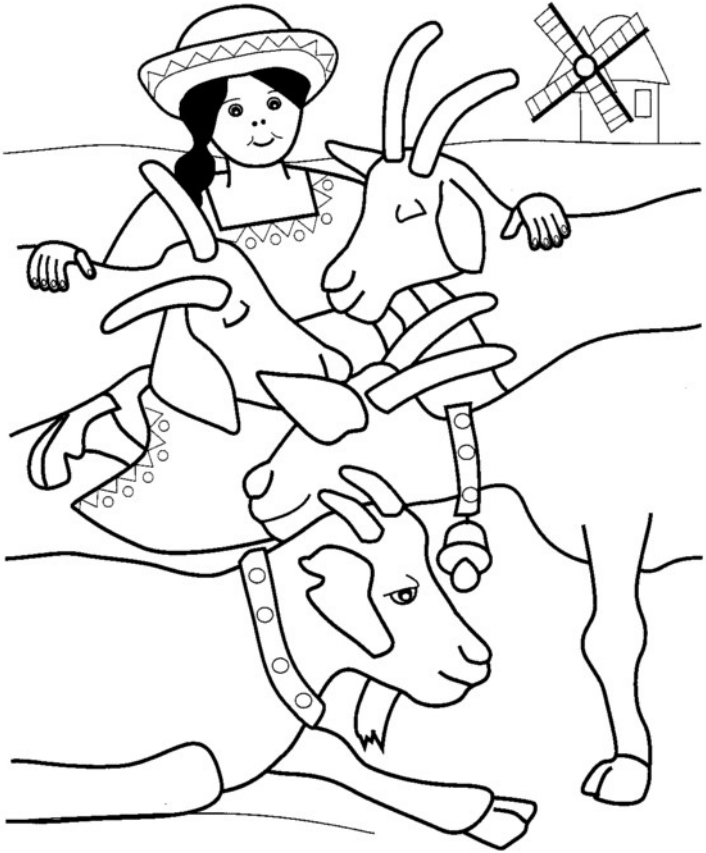


22. In Scandinavia reindeer pull sleighs through the snow.



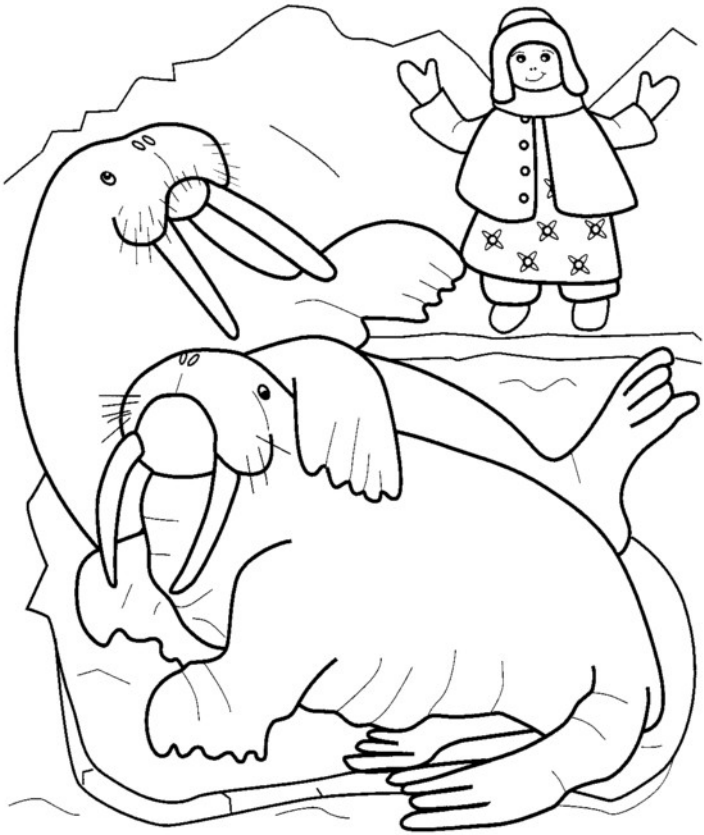
23. Swiss cows wear colorful bells around their necks.

24. The sheep of Scotland provide wool for clothing.



25. In Spain people make cheese from goat's milk.

26. In icy Antarctica penguins eat mostly fish.



27. The Arctic walrus has strong tusks for defense.

28. The Arctic fox of Iceland wears a white fur coat in winter.

29. The American black bear is a very good tree climber.

30. Horses are a familiar sight in the western United States.